

Teens for Food Justice Application

Welcome to the Students for Service Teens for Food Justice program. You may apply online at www.studentsforservice.org/apply or by downloading this form. Fill it out in Adobe Reader, save, and email to apply@studentsforservice.org. You must include a recommendation from your teacher or advisor. Applicants will be accepted into the program on a rolling basis until the deadline: Thursday, November 7.

First Name: _____

Last Name: _____

Neighborhood of Residence: _____

School: _____

Grade: _____

I am: Female _____ Male _____

Email: _____

Essay

Tell us why you want to participate in the Teens for Food Justice program, what you hope to gain from this experience, and describe any previous community service experiences you may have (maximum 250 words). Please attach a separate document.

Teacher or Advisor Recommendation

Ask your teacher or advisor to link to www.studentsforservice.org/recommend to submit their recommendation online, or download a PDF recommendation form.

Teacher or Advisor Name: _____

Email: _____

Project Schedule

The Teens for Food Justice program runs for the entire school year through June 2014. All participants must be willing and able to commit to the schedule below at Bedford Stuyvesant New Beginnings Charter School (BSNBCS), 82 Lewis Avenue, Brooklyn. Students are responsible for their own transportation to and from BSNBCS.

Saturday, 11/23, 9am-2:30pm at BSNBCS: on-site training, installation, and planting of greenhouse

Saturday, 12/14, 1/11, 2/8, 3/8, 4/12, 5/10, 6/14, 9:30-2:30pm at BSNBCS for ongoing farming and community outreach programs

Visit www.studentsforservice.org for more information about Students for Service and Teens for Food Justice.

Teens are the future leaders of NYC. Join us in service!